Computer Part of Equipment

High School to Be First With Business 'Data 'Class

As the above headlines indicate, Dougherty has just scored a big first in educational circles. In fact, come September, our school will be the first High School in Western New York to use a complete data processing department for business education purposes. There will be 13 pieces of data processing equipment, including a Univac 1004 computer. State Education Department statistics note that only 104 students in the entire state received instructions in data processing during the 1963-64 school year and that was limited to solving scientific problems.

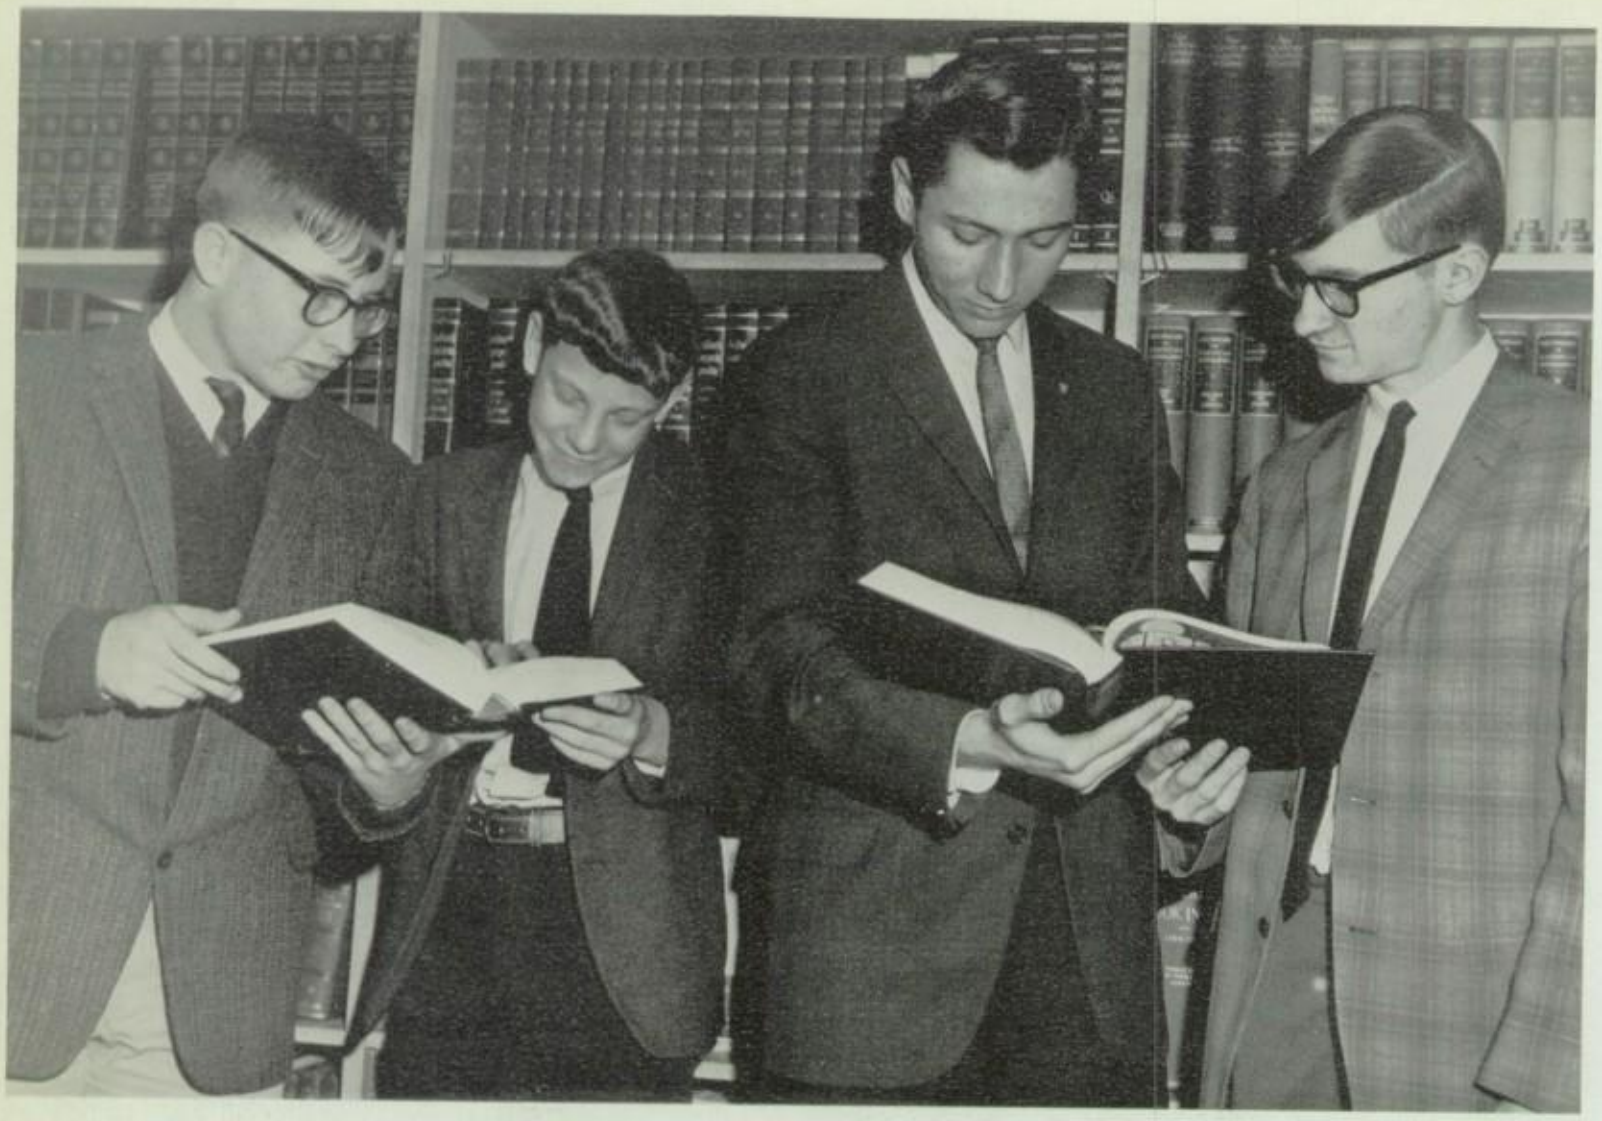
FORENSIC SOCIETY ENJOYS SUCCESSFUL YEAR



Varsity Debaters: Theodore Beringer, David Kendziora, James Rymarczyk and Michael Styn, president. The Society Moderator is Father Patrick Ruddle.

The extent of our Society's activity may be judged from the following facts. Our Society now holds membership in three leagues: the National Forensic League, the New York State Forensic League and the National Catholic Forensic League. As of March 4, its debaters had participated in 13 Varsity Tournaments and 139 other interscholastic debates. Its outstanding victories were: third place at the Gannon College Invitational, second place at the Siena College Invitational and first place at the Neumann High School Tournament. Our varsity men hope to participate in the State finals in Albany, the National Catholic finals in New York City and the National Finals in Omaha, Nebraska.

Shown above are the eleven trophies and awards won this year.

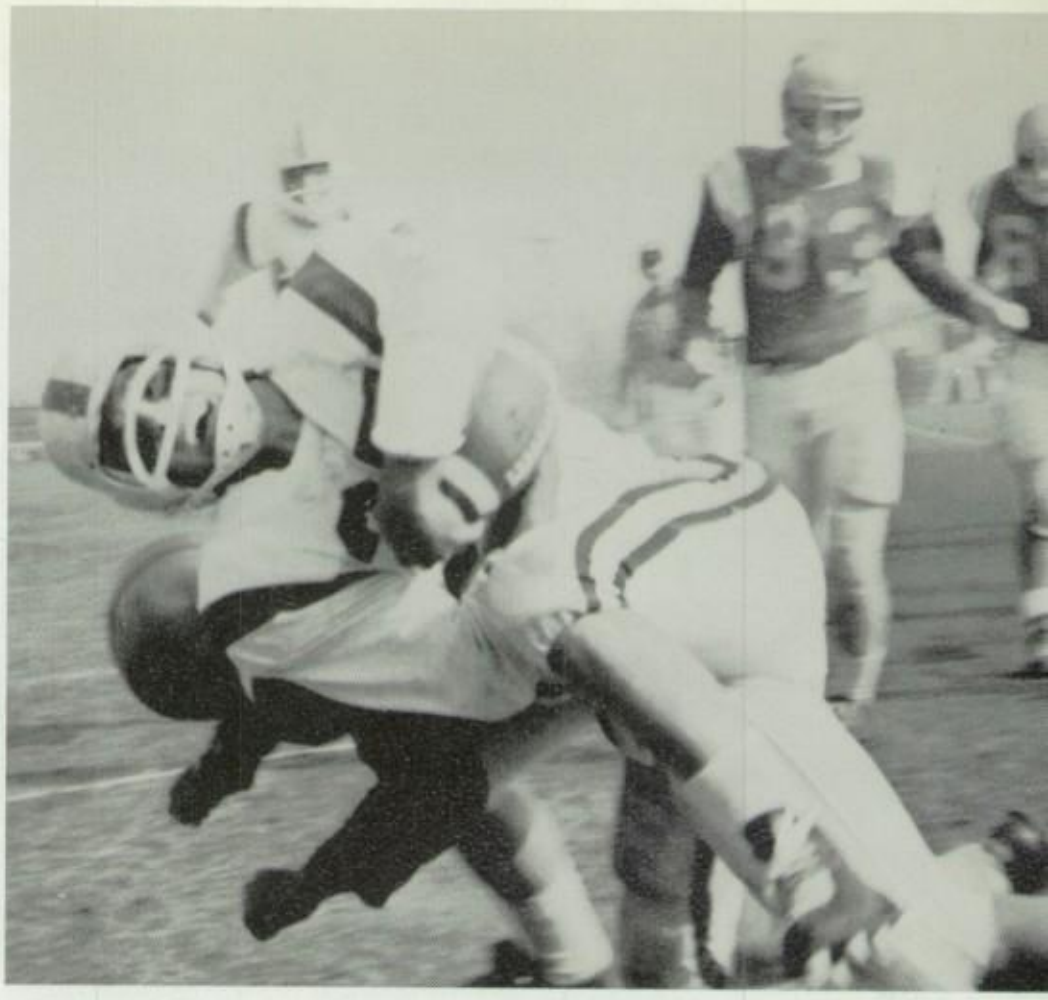
Quarterback James Heffron hurdles an opponent for this touchdown.



John Rittling, with his drive, crashes over for a touchdown.

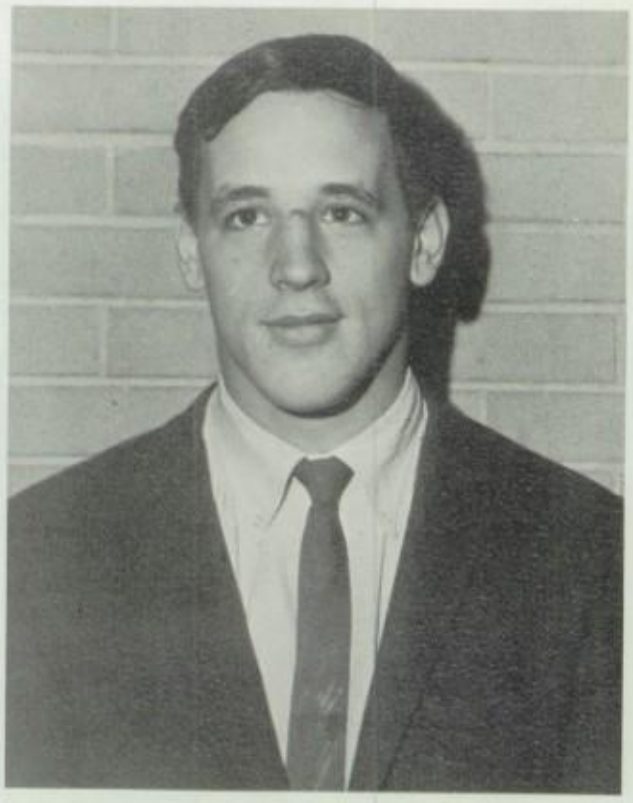
REAL ACTION

In a fine defensive maneuver, James MacDonald (43) breaks up a pass play as team-mates Paul Amigone (63) and James Heffron (12) zero in. In the background, Richard Barrali (77), John Rittling (24) and Gerald Manuel (58) also get in the action.

Paul Amigone (63), Matthew Gryta (54) and two other of our "good guys" display fine pass protection.

More line action with Carl Perusich at extreme right.

Leonard Ingrando (20) breaks loose as James MacDonald (43) prepares to run interference for him.



All Catholic — Paul Amigone

Go! Dougherty! Go!—The ever-faithful fans.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The unfinished product.—J.V. Coach Bob Barrali works on these eager but sometimes awkward recruits.

SECOND PLACE TROPHY

Mr. Thomas Hersey, Anthony Masiello and Coach Tom Griffin proudly display the second place trophy. They also courageously smile, while J.V. Coach Roy Manno (behind Mr. Griffin) reflects the disappointment felt by all the Dougherty players and fans. "Cheer up coach. There are better days ahead."

Time is running out. Coach Griffin checks the clock and urges on his tired but valiant players.

WE JUST MISSED IT!

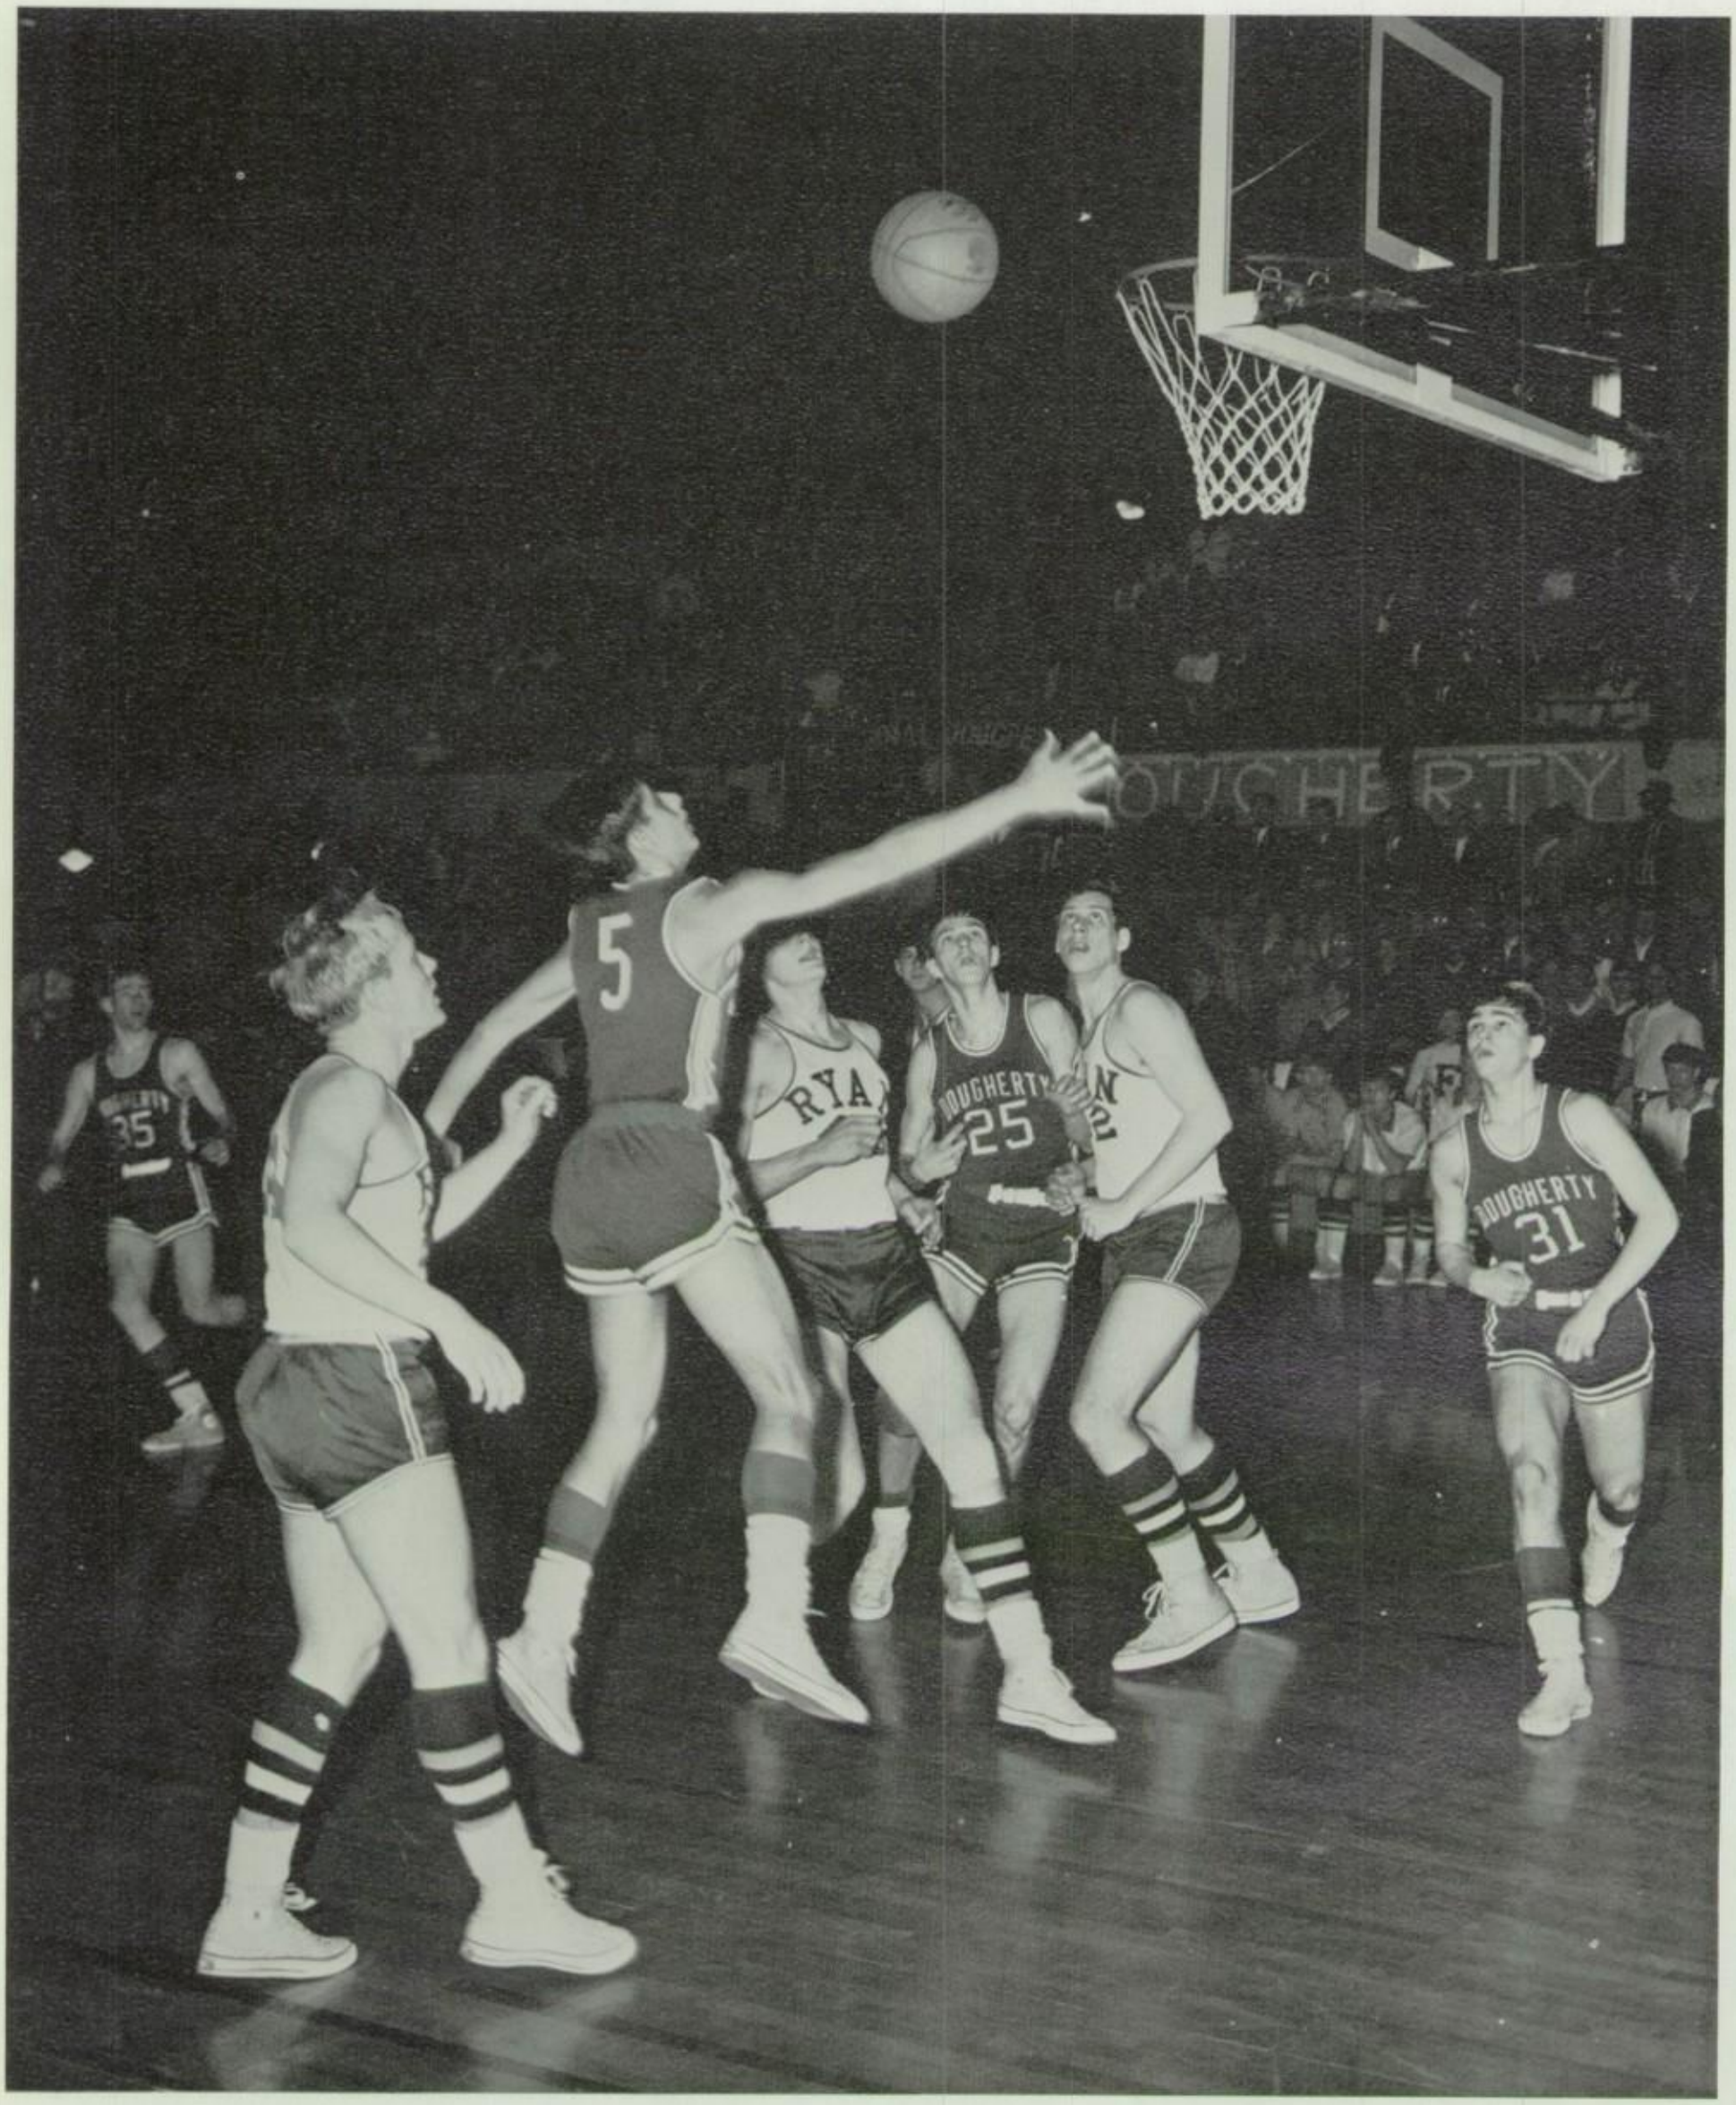
J.V.COACH ROY MANNO DEVELOPS FINE PROSPECTS.

Rev. Theodore S. Berg, Assistant Superintendent of Schools presents Tony Masiello the M.V.P. award.

A dramatic finish. With four minutes to go and trailing by 10 points, Dougherty came back to tie the score and send the game into two overtime periods. On the bench we see Ted Norman (seated), Joseph Malkinsky, J. V. manager, Frank Vallone, Varsity manager, photographer Ralph Hinkson. Players are Riley McDonough, John Hladczuk, Roman Burdzy, Bill Pistner (back), Patrick Abulone, and little Tom Griffin Junior (in black suit).

MANHATTAN CUP ACTION



Tony Ruggiero (5) drives for a layup as teammates Kenneth Kessler (35) Anthony Masiello (25), and Vito Masiello follow the action. Superior size of champion Ryan Rams may be judged by the two players guarding Anthony.

Team sparkplug Tony Ruggiero starts drive while teammates Anthony Masiello (25) and Charles Polizzi (50) also carry out their assignments. Another Senior player deserving credit for the team's fine performance is set-shot artist Louis Giardina.

A study in frustration. While Vito Masiello demonstrates exceptional dribbling, Paul Mitri (42) from Timon seems to be saying: "What can we do against this guy?"

We're Winning!

Several of these fans are Masiello relatives. Tony's mother is in center, arms raised, up and shouting. And a proud mother she can be.

A STUDY IN CONTRASTS

We're losing.

Junior Varsity. FIRST ROW: Richard Ziarkowski, David Harter, Joseph Provenzano, Patrick Abulone, Paul Battaglia, Patrick Janiga. SECOND ROW: David Anderson, Daniel Crehan, Roman Burdzy, Riley McDonough, Gary Haak.
